Our funeral homes were designed to host the commencement of a peaceful setting for those who have passed; and for those left behind, an environment for adjusting to loss. With our services we hope to encourage your recovery from grief and a renewed hope for life's possibilities.

HISTORY

At the end of WWII, Lynn R. Walker left the United States Air Force with a desire to join the funeral industry. During his service, he had discovered his passion for honoring the deceased and for supporting the bereaved. His goal was to create funeral services that would help families find peace and comfort at the difficult time of loss.

Mr. Walker's journey started in Los Angeles at the California College of Mortuary Science. After graduation, he returned to Utah and earned experience with local mortuaries before embarking on his goal of founding his own firm. Mr. Walker opened the doors to his first funeral home in Spanish Fork, Utah, in 1952 and his dream became a reality – a harsh reality – as he struggled for years to keep the doors open. There were existing funeral homes in the area that had long been established in the community. Undeterred, Lynn Walker persevered, knowing that his unique philosophy and genuine care provided in funeral services would set him apart in the long run.

As his reputation grew and his determination won out, Mr. Walker began to establish himself as the prevailing funeral director in Utah County. He opened his Payson location in 1971 and his Provo location in 1973. The ongoing plan called for his funeral homes to be overseen by family. So, after he personally and successfully ran his company for many years, Lynn Walker passed the operations and his love for the business on to his sons, Stewart and Allyn. They, along with five more of the succeeding generation of Walkers, have been running the business ever since.

When the opportunity came to open a location in Orem, Utah, Stewart and Allyn Walker met Tom Sanderson, a local funeral director of 20 years. Mr. Sanderson agreed to bring his experience and expertise into the Walker business to contribute to growth, expansion, and increased reputation for offering highest quality service. In 1993, they shook hands to create Walker Sanderson and establish themselves as the leader in offering compassionate and professional care.

For 60 years now, Walker Family Mortuaries have been very proud of the quality of the services they offer and will continue to do so for generations to come.

In most areas of the country, state or local law does not require that you buy a container to surround the casket in the grave. However, many cemeteries require that you have such a container so that the grave will not sink in. Either a grave liner or a burial vault will satisfy these requirements.

PERSONALIZED LIFE TRIBUTES

ASK FUNERAL DIRECTOR FOR PRICING DETAILS

BALLOON RELEASE

Our large 16-inch balloons are environmentally safe. Some families choose elegant white, while other families prefer the cheer of many colors. As the balloons drift upward, they leave with us a memory that lasts a lifetime.

DOVE RELEASE

This service includes 1 – 30 doves. Doves have always represented love, peace and purity. When a white dove is released at a funeral, it represents the releasing of the spirit of your loved one.

BAGPIPER

Bagpipes are the most enduring of all musical accompaniments for funeral and memorial services. For hundreds of years, people have bid fond farewell to their loved ones with the music of pipes.

FUNERAL WEBCASTING

Funerals fill an important role for the bereaved mourning the loss of a loved one. By providing surviving family and friends a caring, supportive environment in which to share thoughts and feelings about death, funerals are an important step in the healing process. It is not always possible to attend a funeral in person. A funeral webcast allows those who are out of town, ill, deployed or otherwise unable to attend a funeral in person to attend a funeral online.

REMEMBRANCE KEEPSAKE JEWELRY

The opportunity to choose a Keepsake Pendant presents itself only once; the comfort offered by a Keepsake Pendant lasts a lifetime. Keepsake Pendants help enable others to cope more easily and to hold a source of comfort in their hands while finding peace in their hearts.

LEGACY REMEMBRANCE BOX SET

Take home a keepsake memorial for your loved one. The Legacy Remembrance Box Set includes a Memorial DVD, Voice Recording of the Funeral Services, Laminated Funeral Program and a Laminated copy of the Obituary.
