Mixed Hardwoods / Oak:	• Antique/Reclaimed • WeatheredBlend	• Antique/Reclaimed • WeatheredBlend
Specialty:	• Salty Weathered • Picklewood (mixed grays/browns; Douglas Fir, Cedar, Redwood, Cypress) • Hand-Hewn Skins (mixed grays/browns) • Thin (rand ¼ - ½") Skins (Picklewood, Pine, etc.) • NatureAged Band-Sawn	• Antique Smooth (see first note below) • Mushroomwood • Picklewood (mixed grays/browns; Douglas Fir, Cedar, Redwood, Cypress) • Hand-Hewn Skins (mixed grays/browns) • Thin (rand ¼ - ½") Skins (Picklewood, Pine, etc.)	• Antique Painted Red or White (paint is likely to be lead-based)

Notes:

- "Smooth" can mean originally planed and then weathered/aged. It can also mean "less rough"; for example, NatureAged band-sawn is a smoother alternative to NatureAged circle-sawn. Antique/Reclaimed Smooth barnwood options are often heavy to brown tones. A high percentage of Trestlewood's barnwood lumber is rough sawn (meaning it was circle-sawn or band-sawn prior to aging).
- Barnwood products almost always involve a range of color tones. Gray barnwood lumber will generally have more grays than browns, but will often have some brown tones as well. Likewise, brown barnwood lumber will generally have more browns than grays, but will often have some gray tones as well.
- WeatheredBlend barnwood lumber involves a mix/blend of antique/reclaimed barnwood lumber and NatureAged or HarborAged barnwood lumber.
- Barnwood processing services often available at additional cost include: kiln-drying, fumigation, edging (to more consistent width), thickness planing (to more consistent thickness), pressure washing, wire or nylon brushing, metal removal, and adding of profile (t&g, shiplap or wedgelap).

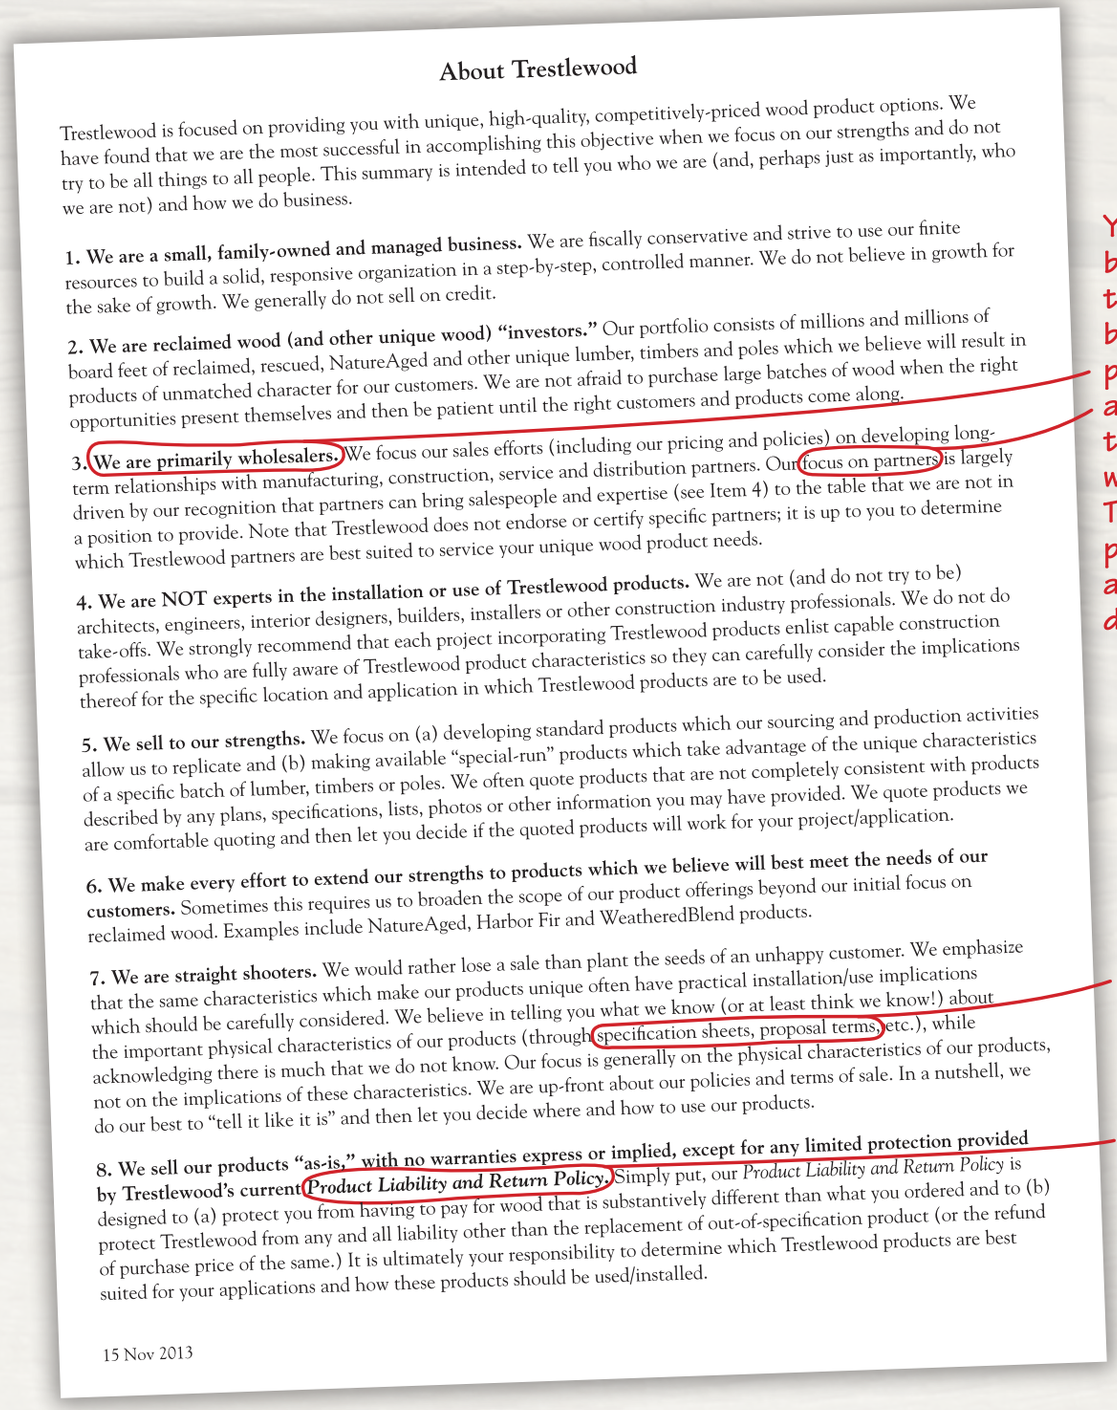
About Trestlewood / www.trestlewood.com



About Trestlewood

Trestlewood is focused on providing you with unique, high-quality, competitively-priced wood product options. We have found that we are the most successful in accomplishing this objective when we focus on our strengths and do not try to be all things to all people. This summary is intended to tell you who we are (and, perhaps just as importantly, who we are not) and how we do business.

1. We are a small, family-owned and managed business. We are fiscally conservative and strive to use our finite resources to build a solid, responsive organization in a step-by-step, controlled manner. We do not believe in growth for the sake of growth. We generally do not sell on credit.

2. We are reclaimed wood (and other unique wood) "investors." Our portfolio consists of millions and millions of board feet of reclaimed, rescued, NatureAged and other unique lumber, timbers and poles which we believe will result in products of unmatched character for our customers. We are not afraid to purchase large batches of wood when the right opportunities present themselves and then be patient until the right customers and products come along.

3. We are primarily wholesalers. We focus our sales efforts (including our pricing and policies) on developing long-term relationships with manufacturing, construction, service and distribution partners. Our focus on partners is largely driven by our recognition that partners can bring salespeople and expertise (see Item 4) to the table that we are not in a position to provide. Note that Trestlewood does not endorse or certify specific partners; it is up to you to determine which Trestlewood partners are best suited to service your unique wood product needs.

4. We are NOT experts in the installation or use of Trestlewood products. We are not (and do not try to be) architects, engineers, interior designers, builders, installers or other construction industry professionals. We do not do take-offs. We strongly recommend that each project incorporating Trestlewood products enlist capable construction professionals who are fully aware of Trestlewood product characteristics so they can carefully consider the implications thereof for the specific location and application in which Trestlewood products are to be used.

5. We sell to our strengths. We focus on (a) developing standard products which our sourcing and production activities allow us to replicate and (b) making available "special-run" products which take advantage of the unique characteristics of a specific batch of lumber, timbers or poles. We often quote products that are not completely consistent with products described by any plans, specifications, lists, photos or other information you may have provided. We quote products we are comfortable quoting and then let you decide if the quoted products will work for your project/application.

6. We make every effort to extend our strengths to products which we believe will best meet the needs of our customers. Sometimes this requires us to broaden the scope of our product offerings beyond our initial focus on reclaimed wood. Examples include NatureAged, Harbor Fir and WeatheredBlend products.

7. We are straight shooters. We would rather lose a sale than plant the seeds of an unhappy customer. We emphasize that the same characteristics which make our products unique often have practical installation/use implications which should be carefully considered. We believe in telling you what we know (or at least think we know!) about the important physical characteristics of our products (through specification sheets, proposal terms, etc.), while acknowledging there is much that we do not know. Our focus is generally on the physical characteristics of our products, not on the implications of these characteristics. We are up-front about our policies and terms of sale. In a nutshell, we do our best to "tell it like it is" and then let you decide where and how to use our products.

8. We sell our products "as-is," with no warranties express or implied, except for any limited protection provided by Trestlewood's current Product Liability and Return Policy. Simply put, our Product Liability and Return Policy is designed to (a) protect you from having to pay for wood that is substantively different than what you ordered and to (b) protect Trestlewood from any and all liability other than the replacement of out-of-specification product (or the refund of purchase price of the same.) It is ultimately your responsibility to determine which Trestlewood products are best suited for your applications and how these products should be used/installed.

You likely have been introduced to Trestlewood by one of our partners. Please ask your contact to provide you with all relevant Trestlewood product and policy documents.

Specification sheets and proposal terms are the primary vehicles by which Trestlewood communicates product information.

Trestlewood's Product Liability and Return Policy describes how Trestlewood products are sold.

New for 2014.....

We have added a few additional pages to this year's calendar to summarize some of our focus products: see the Barnwood, Resawn Lumber, Timbers and Flooring product grids on the previous four pages. We also wanted to dedicate a couple of pages to telling you about Trestlewood the company and some of the website tools we've put in place to help you find and purchase just the right Trestlewood products for your project.

Did you know?

www.trestlewood.com allows you to:

1. Use Product Selection Tools (Flooring, Timbers, Siding, Lumber, Mantels) to zero in on products of interest.
2. Purchase certain products (including specific mantels and flooring units) via online Shopping Cart functionality. See page below for "How to Buy a Trestlewood Mantel".
3. Submit a detailed or more general Request for Quote.
4. Digitally Sign and Make Payments on proposals.
5. View Product Pages, with photos, specification sheets, sampling of inventory photos, etc.
6. View thousands of Photos of projects, products, etc.
7. Access Trestlewood Policy Documents.
8. Read Trestlewood Blog Posts.
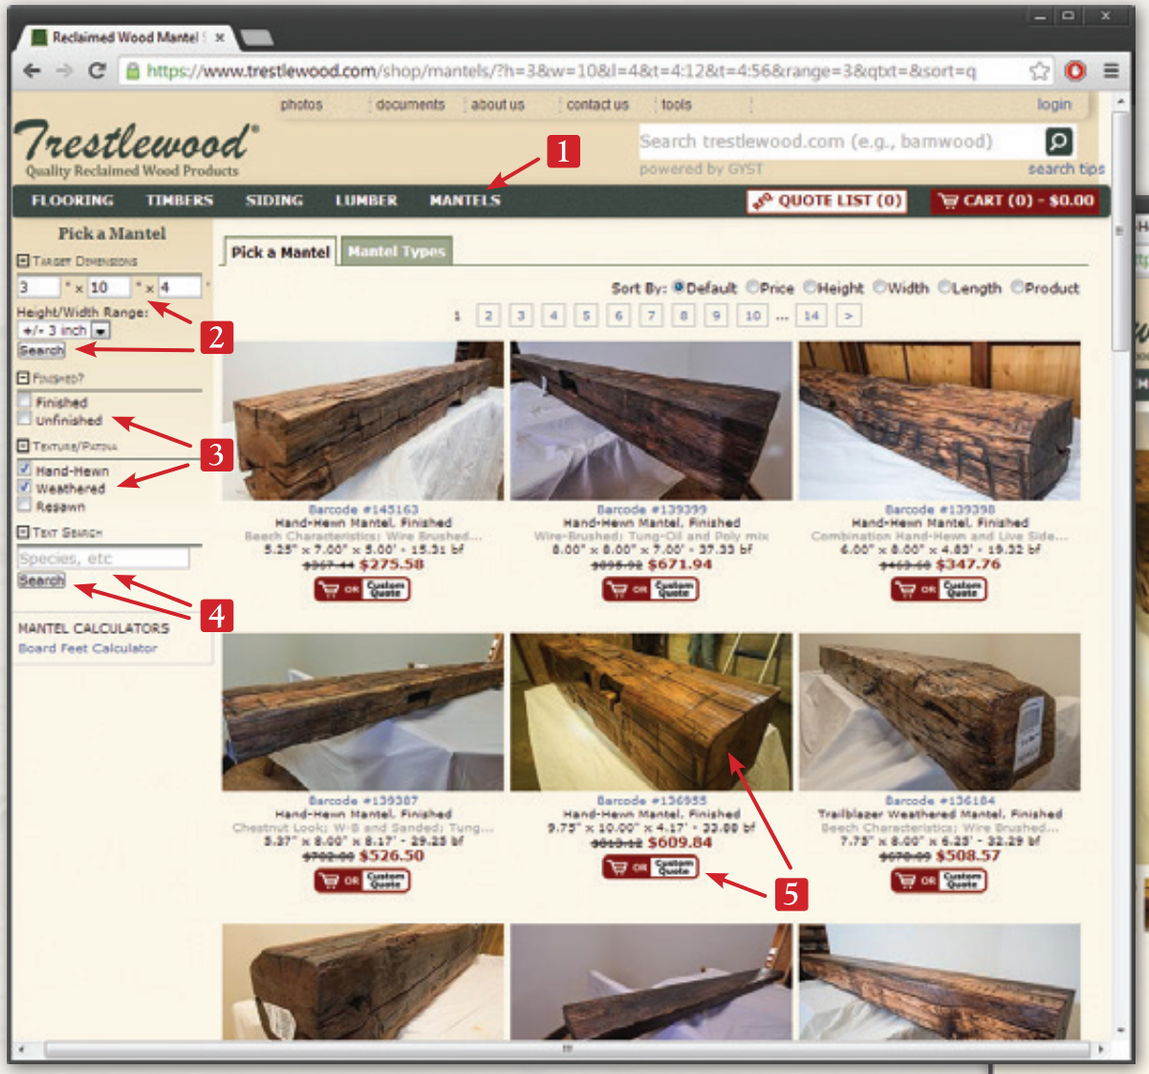
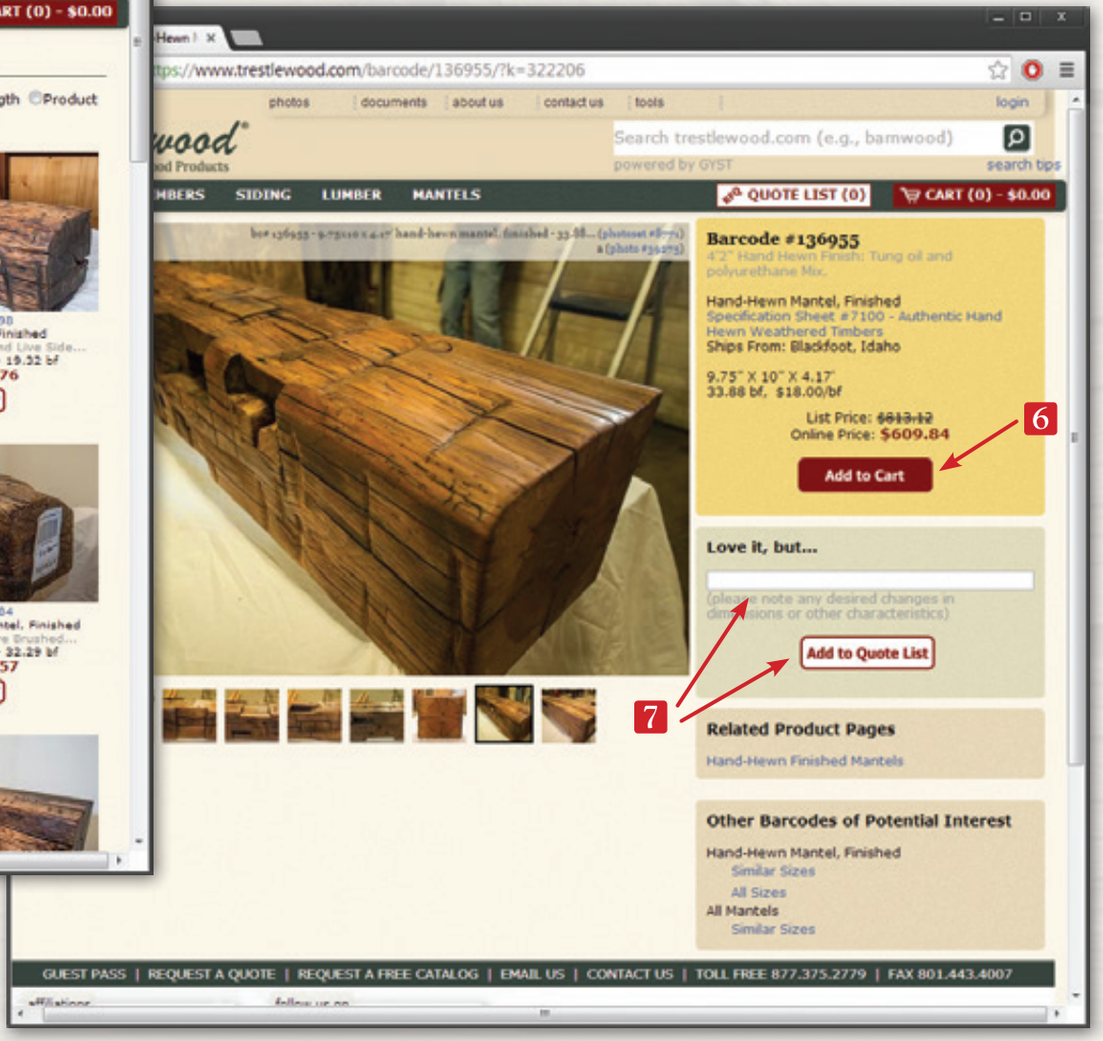
9. Access and use Trestlewood Flooring, Timber/Lumber and Siding Calculators.
10. Use Trestlewood Smart Search to quickly find possible product, photo, document, blog post and other matches for a search term of your choice.

How to Buy a Trestlewood Mantel

We believe the very best way to buy a reclaimed or other unique wood mantel is to hand-pick the specific piece that is the best match for your unique mantel needs and tastes. To this end, we have invested significant effort in our online Mantel Selection Tool.



1. Select the MANTELS option from the products bar.
2. Enter the dimensions you would like to target and click on the "Search" button.
3. To narrow your search results by Finished/Unfinished and/or by Texture/ Patina, select the appropriate check boxes and watch the results change.
4. If desired, you can narrow your search results further by entering a simple text search and clicking the "Search" button.
5. See a mantel you like? Click on the thumbnail photo or the shopping cart/ custom quote button for more information.



6. Like what you see? Add it to your cart and purchase online!
7. Like it, but it's just not quite right (too long, not long enough, too thick, etc.)? Enter desired changes and click on Add to Quote List button, then submit Quote List.
