What satisfied customers are saying:

"I have worked with John Taylor of Taylor Graphics, LLC, on several projects. His attention to detail and commitment to perfection have produced some amazing pieces that are both utilitarian and unique."

He has a great ability to blend creativity with functionality. In addition, he knows how to prepare his files for print and web, and spends the extra time necessary to make sure his clients' projects are completed on time and with a professional look."

Paul Lowry, Vice President of Business Development, Press Media, Provo, UT

"I truly enjoy working with John Taylor on our graphic design needs. Not only is his work product always very professional, but the process in getting it done is enjoyable!"

John is a great collaborator in dialing in what we're looking for. John has great skills, great insights on our needs, and lots of patience."

John is a top-notch partner to our business and I would happily recommend him for your design needs."

Eric Teel, College Controller, Brigham Young University, Provo, UT; CMO, Trestlewood, LLC, Lindon, UT

"John Taylor of Taylor Graphics, LLC, has helped us out with the designs of multiple marketing products. He has helped us create a uniform, professional image for our brochures, website, business cards, vehicle wraps, and trade show products."

I've been very impressed with John's attention to detail, quality of work on all of the different projects he does for us, and especially his willingness to listen to my feedback and make any adjustments. His goal is that we're completely satisfied. I would highly recommend Taylor Graphics, LLC, to any organization looking to improve their image or marketing materials."

Thanks, John!"

Michael Ash, Owner, Rose Concrete Coatings, Bluffdale, UT

"I found Taylor Graphics' rates to be reasonable, the quality of work excellent, and the ability to meet deadlines consistent. John took time to gain an understanding of our business, our limitations, and our client's purpose for the project. With this background, John was able to take my ideas and add to them to create a final product with which our client was thrilled."

I also know John's high standards create a quality product on which I'm happy to have our company name."

Whether an ad campaign, a brochure, or a website, without hesitation I would recommend Taylor Graphics, LLC, for all your graphic arts needs."

Welcome to the creative world of Taylor Graphics, LLC

I'm John Taylor, owner of this imaginative enterprise. Taylor Graphics, LLC, is dedicated to creating unique, visual solutions for business marketing needs. It is essential that every company have its own professional look, and Taylor Graphics cooperatively works with businesses to provide just that. Taylor Graphics is your "one-stop design shop," offering dozens of design, web and printing services.

I love sports, basketball in particular. I shoot thousands of free throws a year and engage in cardio exercise in order to stay physically fit and mentally focused. This aids my design efforts, as I'm able to apply an intensely creative focus on client projects and multi-task for longer periods of time.

Your satisfaction is TOP priority. With over 30 years experience as a graphic and website designer, advertising artist, illustrator, cartoonist, caricaturist, and photographer, my passion to create and publish imagery – in print and online – remains a driving motivation.

For a professionally creative look, call today: 801-376-8461, or email: taygraphics@gmail.com.

Why choose Taylor Graphics, LLC, for all your design needs?

- You'll communicate directly with me, John Taylor, owner of Taylor Graphics, LLC. Whether it's a free consultation by phone, or a meeting at your office to discuss your company's marketing and advertising design needs, my business provides a 24/7 information flow for all your design needs. Communicate by phone, email, text or through my website: www.taylor-graphics.net

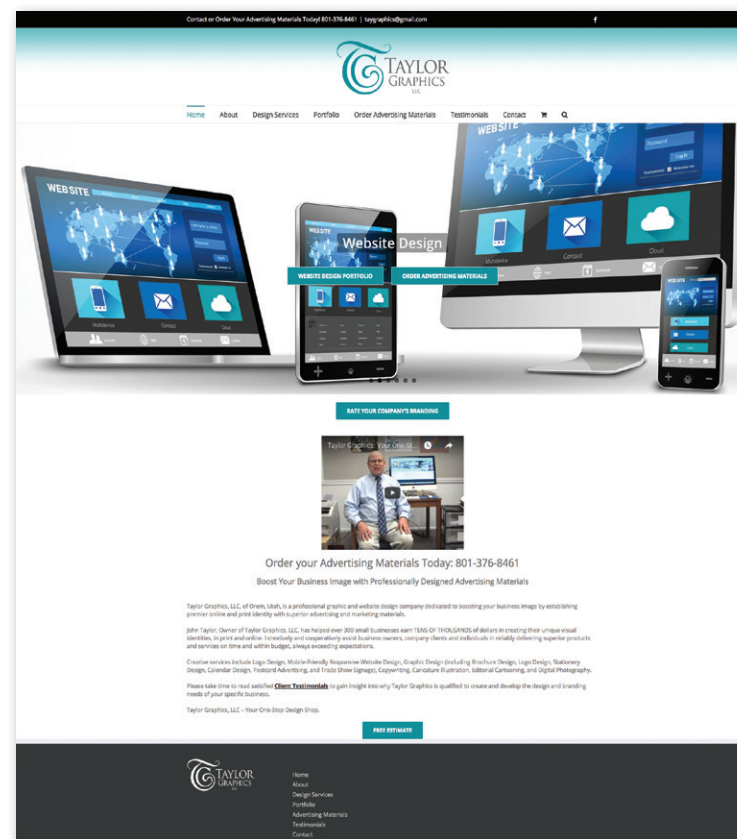

At Taylor Graphics, there is no overhead to add extra fees to your design projects. Taylor Graphics is here to fulfill your design needs promptly, thoroughly and professionally. Call John Taylor at 801-376-8461 and get started today.

- You'll have a friend in the idea business. Everything begins with ideas. There's nothing better than sharing new ideas which will enhance and transform an existing look into a refreshing and unique professional business image. Taylor Graphics will boost your business image in the market place with artistically-crafted advertising materials.

And, there's nothing better than seeing your new business image attract positive customer feedback and increased sales!

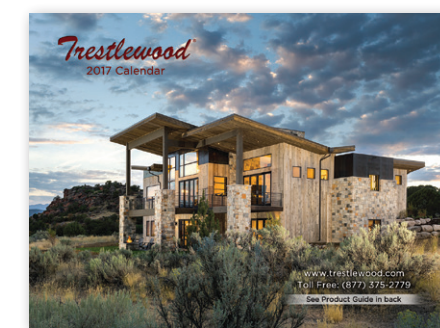

- You'll receive budget-friendly pricing on design, printing, web hosting and SEO. Many companies are opting to save money by designing their own advertising materials. However, the results are often lackluster and, after time, a costly redesign is usually required to improve branding. With experience and expertise in the digital & web design and print industries, Taylor Graphics will ensure you receive a professionally polished product that is tailored to fit your advertising budget.
